

Vinnie, who wants to be the biggest prankster in the world, plans revenge on the witch-cleaner-from-hell. Vinnie likes the way his bedroom is, rather than sparkling clean. He takes revenge by making snot sandwiches and writing notes in his diaries that he knows the witch-cleaner will read.

I enjoyed this book because I love humour. The highlight for me was learning to say 'fart' in nine different languages. This book would suit someone who likes pranks, humour and taking revenge on people. Recommended for readers from 10 to 13.
